HONOR TO WHOM HONOR IS DUE.—BUNKUM'S Autobiography.—Author's Card.—Whereas a paragraph appeared in the New York Herald of yesterday, stating that the "Life of Petite Bunkum," just published by Harris & Co., 102 Navan street, is "Barnum's last dedge," and "a cute trick of the Yankee Showman," a la Peter Funk, this is to give the public notice that the undersigned is the sole author of the burlesque referred to, having written every word contained in it, and having also, he flatters kinnedl, embodied in it a great deal "more truth than petry." Let the devil have life due, at all events.

Wolffe's AROMATIC SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS.—THIS is the Dutch title of an article claimed by its proprietor to be a pure H. land 6in. In comparing the Schnapps with the many adulterated and deleterious liquors of the present time, the proprietor makes many truthful-remarks, from which we make a few extracts:—

"The general adulteration of distilled and fermented liquors, and the excessive use of the impure and deleterious fluids thus produced, have unquestionably generated a greater amount of demoralization, misery, and discase, than any other known cause. It would be well if the immediate and necessary result of using, either as a beverage or a medicine, the pernicious compounds commonly soid as genuine brandies, gins, wines, &c. were better understood. Two thirds of the drankenness which disgraces society is attributable to the nature of the stimulants purebased from unscrupulous dealers. Adulterated liquor begets an insatiable and depraved thirst for slooholic drinks in every human being who imbibes if. It is intended to do so by those who sell it. They profit doubly by the wicked decuption; first, by obtaining a good price for a cheap and unwholesome article; and secondly, through the large demand for it, which its thirst-creating property induces. Pure, wholesome liquor, on the other hand, possesses a satisfying quality. A very moderate quantity suffices. It soothes the system, instead of exciting that fierce and fiery craving for definive stimulants, which only renewed applications to the bottle can appease. And here it may be queted, as the opinion of many eminent chemists and physicians, that the rapid growth of inebriety in the United States, has been mainly caused by the general aystem of adulteration practiced of late years both in Europe, has given a new and powerful impetus to the business of deterioration, so that it is now more difficult than it ever was before to procure these articles genuine.

The present high price of brandy and other l than it ever was before to procure these articles genuine.

Every practical chemist knows that an acrid and poissonous lagredient, known as fusel oil, forms a constituent portion of all inferior liquers. Now this oil, which produces such deplorable effects upon the stomach and the nervous system of the habitual drunkard, and is, in many cases, the proximate cause of mania a potu, paralysis and death, is not a compotent part of the Schiediam Atomatic Schiapps. The most rigid analysis has failed to detect the smallest particle of it in that hygeian preparation. Dr. D. L. Mott says he tested various quintities of it with chloride of calcium, a chemical agen which developes the foul fluid in all ordinary liquors, without being able to discover a trace of this destructive substance. Other chemists, who have made similar experiments, say the same thing, and the whole testimony of analysis, as well as of experience in the sick room, tends to one focal point—that the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps is the purest spirituous liquor ever manufactured."

CONFLAGRATION IN BROADWAY.

JUDSON'S HOTEL IN RUINS.

LOSS ABOUT $75,000.

Yestemlay morning, between 7 and 8 o'clock, a fire was discovered in the laundry situated in the basement story of Judson's Hotel, No. 61 Broadway. The fire was first observed by one of the waiters, named Thomas Oakes, and the alarm immediately given throughout the house. The smoke and flame spread so rapidly that the servants on the lower floor were unable to save any of their tranks or clothing.

From the laundry the flames communicated with the staircase, and ascended so rapidly that the boarders above had barely time given them to escape.

The Hall bell promptly sounded the alarm for the Seventh district, and the firemen turned out in full force. The Chief of Police, with a reserved corps, was on the ground, all energetic in their efforts to save property and rescue the inmates of the house. At the time of the fire many of the ladies were asleep in their rooms and were compelled to fly, some of them only half

The bedding and furniture of the hotel, together with the baggage of the boarders, were thrown in great quantitles out of the windows on Trinity place. About 180 guests were stopping at the hotel at the time of its destruction.

A few minutes past nine the fire spread from the basement to the sixth story, and the men upon the ladders left the burning building, unable to save any more of the furniture and effects.

the mass of fire, and also upon the adjoining buildings which were in danger. Adams & Co.'s express office next door to the hotel, was slightly injured by water. At eleven o'clock the interior of the hotel was nearly consumed, and the beams fell with a tremendous crash. The firemen on Adams' house pushed down the hotel walls on Trinity place, with ladders, to prevent them falling into the street upon the crowd. The buildings on the opposite side of Trinity place became heated and scorched by the fire, and required to be kept constantly wet, to prevent the spread of the conflagration.

At this time the efforts of the firemen were to save the adjoining buildings. On the north side of the hotel was the large free stone block on the corner of Broadway and Rector street, which was occupied, next to the burning building by Messrs. Hoyt. Tillinghast & Co., commission merchants, No. 63, and Messrs. McCurdy, Aldrich & Spencer, No. 65, and Messrs. Ide, Carpenter & Co., No. 67. This block is separated from the hotel by a narrow passage, about four feet in width, which, opening on Trinity place, reaches up nearly to Broadway. A number of windows from the hotel opened on this passage, and the flames poured through them so that the entire space was one torrent of flame, playing upon the walls of the block Nos. 63 to 67.

This passage was so situated as to be innecessible to the exertions of the fire companies, and threatened the destruction of the block of stores in consequence. A portion of the wall of Judson's fell over on the dome of the rear office of Messrs. Adams & Co., causing con siderable damage. Over Adams & Co., the upper stories are occupied by J. C. How & Co., dry goods jobbers, considerably damaged from smoke and water. They are the site of the hotel was a pile of smoking ruins. The rear wall was pushed down, falling outward into Trigity place. With this wall came down the rest of the building, excepting the front wall on Broadway, which is yet When the smoke was first seen in the hotel, an old

The servants, about thirty in number, lost most of station house. Some of the servant girls were the last to remain in the building, and had to be rescued from One poor girl, we understand, lost her earnings of many years past, amounting to $600.

The following statements in regard to the origin of the fire were made yesterday afternoon, before Mr. Alfred E. Baker, the energetic Fire Marshal. Mary Burk.—I was one of the waiters in the hotel; I was cutting bread in the servants' hall when the alarm was given; I ran out towards the stairway leading up by the laundry, when I saw a thick smoke between the laundry door and the stairway; I did not see any flame, out hurried up stairs; I had not time to save any of my clothing, although I made an attempt to get my trunk. Hannah Pfendergast.—I was down in the lower end of the girls' cellar about half-past seven, sewing, when my sister alarmed me by her cries; I saw smoke and fire in the steam room, issuing from among the frames where the clothes are hung to dry; one of us went into the which were below where we slept, but this was impos-sible; the servants' hall was over the steam room, and is over it.

Thomas Cakes.—I was one of the waiters in Judson's Hotel; I had gone down stairs to get some cakes, between seven and eight o'clock in the morning, when another waiter called to me and said there was fire in the house; I lumediately ran into the hall towards the laundry or drying room, and saw a large quantity of smoke and flame rushing out of the room. I ran up stairs and gave the alarm. In this laundry room is a large furnace, in which a very hot fire is generally kept. From this furnace a pipe extends within five or six inches of the ceiling, which I have many times seen red hot. think the fire came from this overheated pipe. Pat Cor

Such were the crowd and oke that I could not escape down stairs, so I get upon the roof, as d thence away by Mesars. Hoyt's premises. I lost all I have in clothes, and I know that all my fellow maid servants a cin the same predicament.

John Reddington, of 95 Mulberry street, said—I was in the dining room on the level of Broadway, at eight o'clock, when I was alarmed by cries of fire. There were about a dozen gentlemen present, some of them lodging in the hotel. I had to go down stairs for my things, and t was with difficulty I had time to accomplish it. ried to save the clothes of the servant girls, and to drag them up from the cellar to the best of my ability.

The fire called into Broadway thousands of spectators, who, during the forenoon, completely blocked up the street. It was very fortunate that the conflagration happened in the day time; had it taken place at night nany lives perhaps would have been lost.

CLEEGYMEN IN THE MASSACHUSETTS LEGISLATURE. An unusually large number of clergymen were elected to the State Legislature on Monday. As far as we are acquainted with the clergymen elect, the Methodists lave the largest number of any one denomination, and some of the members of that order who are chosen are marked "aupernumerard" or "superan unsted" on the conference lists. We suppose these terms have no meaning in politics as applied to a new jorty. Several Universalist clergymen, of good abilities are elected to the House of Representatives, and altegether, there will be a good sprinkling of ministers in be th brauches of the General Court.—Boston Transcript, Nov. 18.

THE OFFICIAL CANVASS.

The New York papers have been led into error in regard to the time when the State canvassers meet to canvass the returns of the recent election. The law requires that they shall meet for this purpose on the first Tuesday of December. If the returns are not all in by the 15th of that month, then they are to dispatch special messengers to the delinquent County Clerks' offices, to procure them. When they are all in, and not before, they proceed to canvass. The canvass of the votes for Presidential Electors is required to be made on the Wednesday succeeding the third Monday by November. This is the requirement which the Allas, with its usual brillater, confounds with the provision in regard to the canvass for State officers.—Albany Argus, Nov. 20.

MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN. Nathan C. Ely, Esq., President, in the chair. Fernando Wood, Esq., Mayor elect, sat on the chair beside the President the greater part of the evening.

Nov. 20 .- The minutes of the last meeting were read

Several-reports of the committees for the correction of axes, and for grading and repairing streets, were retaxes, and for grading and repairing streets, were received and adopted. The report of the Committee on Police, in favor of concurring with the Board of Councilmen to pay the medical bills of Doctors Kiersted, Simmons, Collett, and Kilbourne was concurred in. From the same, in favor of paying medical bills of brs. Lodge, McAlister, Squibble, Van Lieu, Church, and Collett, concurred in. The bill for medical attendance on William Moore, policeman of the Seventeenth ward, concurred in.
WHAT'S IN A NAME!—CROSS STREET CHANGED TO PARK

WHAT'S IN A NAMEY—CROSS STREET CHANGED TO PARK STREET.

Alderman Howard presented a petition from the Ladies' Missionary Society of the Five Points, and owners of property in the vicinity of Orange, Anthony and Cross streets, to have the name of Cross street changed to that of Park street. He urged that the prayer of the petition be granted, as it would be conducive to the respectability and the purification of the neighborhood tewards which the petitioners were making strennous efforts.

Alderman HUNT moved a reference.

Alderman WM. Tucker moved, as an amendment, that it be called—

Alderman Vooritis would move that, out of compliment to the Alderman of the Sixth ward, it be called Howard Alderman Voorbus would move that, out of compliment to the Alderman of the Sixth ward, it be called Howard street.

Alderman Howard declined the honor. (Laughter.) It eve was one Howard street in the city already, and it as full of — houses. (Loud laughter.) He didn't an another.

The Presment suggested that there might be some contus on occasioned by calling it Park street, as there was a lark place and Park row.

Alderman Howard said that Park place was filled with gambling houses, and as much degraded as the neighborhood of the Five Points was; in point of morality it was still ahead of Park place. (Laughter.)

The motion to grant the prayer of the petition was then put, and carried by a vote of 15 to 5.

STREET CONTRACTORS PAY.

The Committee on Finance, to whom was referred an ordinance to authorize the issue of bonds upon contractors have been obliged to wait until the completion of the work before receiving payment therefor, thus requiring, in many cases, a large amount of capital to carry on the work; and contractors, in order to protect themselves against loss, were obliged to contrast at higher prices than would be requisite, if they received their pay during the progress of the work. They recommend the adoption of the ordinance, with the amendment, that the amount due the contractors, from time to time, on all public works, shall be paid by the issuing of assessment bonds, in accordance with the act of the Legislature passed April 16, 1852. The ordinance provides that payments shall be paid by monthly instalments of 70 per cent on the amount of work performed, and when completed, the balance, 30 per cent, to be paid.

GRADING SECOND AYENUE.

The report of the Committee of the Board of Councilmen, in layer of the assessment lists for regulating and grading Second avenue from Twenty-eighth to 123d street, was received and read, and refer papers from the Councilmen, and adjourned to Thursday next.

BOARD OF COUNCILMEN. The Board met at five o'clock last evening, President

Brown in the chair, when the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. The various routine petitions from, and concerning, the Fire Department, relative to street grading, opening, the Department of Streets and Lamps, &c., &c., were presented, and referred to the different committees appointed to consider these subjects. A resolution was proposed, having for its object the restraining of the Commissioner of Lamps and Gas in perfecting a contract for the lighting of the piers and confer with the Aldermen on Mr. Armstrong's case. Various reports from the Committee on Streets were referred to a committee of the whole.

The Board then went into committee of the whole, Councilman Vermillyrs in the chair.

It was ordered that a paper granting a money gratuity be given to a fireman named Garside, for his conduct in rescuing people at the fire in Grand street, have a third reading.

reacuing people at the fire in Grand street, have a third reading.

On a motion to pay ex-Recorder Talmadge and Counsellor Tominson $250 for defending the contested seat of the Councilman of Seventh district, before a committee of the Board, Mr. Mather made some apropos and seathing remarks on the conduct of members of the Beard, who had "tangible reasons for voting away the city funds, and who having once tasted of the treasury pap themselves, had a sort of proclivity to vote money to outsiders."

The motion was lost.

As an illustration of the practical working of practical reform (as said by members), it was immediately moved that $200 be voted, which was carried.

A report of the Committee of Finance, in favor of appropriating $500 to the family of Policeman Gourley, lately killed in the First ward, was adopted, with a resolution giving it effect.

After a few other papers—unimportant—were read, the Board adjourned to to-morrow (this day), at five o'click.

Police Intelligence.

Passing a False Token .- Officer Gallagher, of the Second District Police Court, arrested a man, named Bernard Trainor, charged with passing a false token to the amount of $50, on Peter Mullin, of Twenty-seventh Bernard Trainor, charged with passing a false token to the amount of $50, on Peter Mullin, of Twenty-seventh street, near Second avenue. It appears that the complainant met the defendant and asked him to give him large bills for some small ones that he had, to the amount of $50. Trainor went into his house at Rondout, where the occurrence took place, and procured a business card of William Young, boot and shoe maker, looking very like a fifty dollar bill on the Leather Manufacturers' Fank of this city, which he gave Mullin in return for the small bills tendered him. The prisoner was committed for examination by Justice Clarke.

Burglary.—Charles Bean and James Gilmore were arrested by the police, charged with having burglariously entered the house of Mr. Wetmore in Fourth street, and stealing therefrom silver knives and forks valued at $20. The accused parties were arrested in the house No. 6 Bayerd street on suspicion of being thieves. On their persons were found the stoken property of Mr. Wetmore. They were taken before Justice Welsh, who committed them for further examination.

Another Statting Affron.—At a late hour on Sunday right, while two men, named Michael Arnold and Michael Carroll, were fighting and quarrelling with each other in a porter house in Roosevell street, the latter received a severe stab in the left thigh, from a dirk knife in the hands of the forme. The Fourth ward police being attracted to the spot by the noise, arrived just in time to arrest Arnold, whom they took to the statirn house. Carroll was conveyed to the New York Hospital for medical treatment. Yesterday Arnold was brought before Justice Pogart, wha committed him for examination in default of $1,000 ball.

Superior Court—Part Second.

Superior Court-Part Seco

Before Hon. Judge Campbell and a Jury.

Nov. 20.—Isaac Anderson and George Alling against John Peck and Nathan C. Lyman.—This was an action brought by the plaintiffs, co-partners in business in the city of New Haven, Conn., against the defendants, doing business in this city, under the firm of Peck & Lyman, for the violation of a contract alleged to have been made business in this city, under the firm of Peck & Lyman, for the violation of a contract alleged to have been made on the 8th of November, 1852, between the plaintiffs and defendants, by which the latter agreed—it was contended by Mr. Charles F. Sandlord, counsel for the plaintiffs—to deliver to the plaintiffs, at New Haven, a certain quantity of humber, consisting of Southern pine plank, and dimensioned sticks, at the rate of twenty-two dollars per thousand feet. No written contract between the parties, it appeared, was ever made, and the counsel for the plaintiffs accept to establish one by various letters which had been written by the plaintiffs and defendants on the subject, and also by parole testimony. It appeared by one of the letters from the defendants to the plaintiffs, that their steam sawing mills had been blown up and destroyed shortly after the alleged contract, which prevented them from supplying their customers. For the defende, a general denial of the contract was set up by Mr. D. D. Lord, who contended that the letters read in evidence failed to establish one; also, that the same was void by not being in writing.

The Court charged the jury that the contract was a question of fact for them to consider, and if they found there was a contract, then the rule of damages would be the difference between the countract price and the market price of lumber at New Haven by the cargo, at the time the same was agreed to be delivered by the contract.

FIRE IN FRANKFORT STREET—ARREST OF A WOMAN CHARGED WITH ARROY.—Last night, between 10 and 11 o'clock, a fire was discovered in the back basement of the dwelling house, No. 34 Frankfort atreet, kept by fire was discovered, a woman named Mary Lynch was found in the entry endeavoring to escape. Mrs. McCarthy seized hold of her, and a struggle ensued. Am Carthy seized hold of her, and a struggle ensued. An alarm was given, and that instant the fismes were discovered in the back cellar, amongst a lot of straw. The police were called, and officer Doming, of the Fourth ward, took Mrs. Lynch into custody, and conveyed her to the station house on the charge of wilfully setting fire to the premises. There appears to have been a quarrel between Mrs. McCarthy and Mrs. Lynch, which is said to have been the cause of Mrs. Lynch visiting the house as alleged to fire the building. The firemen were early on the spot, and extinguished the flames before they extended out of the cellar. The damage will amount to about $10$. The case will be investigated by the Fire Marshal this day.

The New York Horneutreral Society.—Some half dozen members of this society assembled at their rooma last night; but a quorum not being present, the company adjourned till next Monday evening.

Horses on Broadway.—Nothing, at the present time, more shocks the humane feelings of our pedestrians on Broadway than the frequency of the exhibition of horses falling in the street. The pavement here is so smooth and slippery, especially in wet weather, that the poor animals have no footheld, and slide and fall, bruising and tearing the skin from their sides in a way shocking to see. One cannot walk along Broadway without being attracted by scenes of this kind. So common is it, that an omnibus driver considers himself fortunate if he can make his trip without bringing one or both of his horses to the pavement. The old fashioned cobble stones are much preferable to the present pavement in Broadway, if the latter is so killing to horses, and is without aremedy.

THE HOME FOR AGED AND INDIGENT FEMALES.—The fourth annual meeting of the Graham Institution, or "Home" for respectable aged and indigent females, was held last evening at the Brooklyn Athenæum, in Atlantic street. Mayor Lambert presided, and the services were street. Mayor Lambert presided, and the services were commenced by reading a portion of Scripture, and prayer by the Rev. Mr. Weed, of Sands street M. E. Church. Rev. Mr. Rockwell read the annual report, from which it appears that the receipts since the last meeting amounted to $5,000, the larger proportion of which has been paid out, to meet current expenses.

At the beginning of the last year there were 29 peasioners, and six have since been added. Three have died, viz:—Elizabeth Colgan, aged 65; Mary Deacon, aged 81 (of cholera); Hannah McCullogh, aged 60. The health of the inmates generally has been good.

The "Home," which is situated in Washington avenue, near leKaib, is under the charge of 40 lady managers, who have been assiduous and faithful in the discharge of their duties. They ask contributions to take up the mortgage of $5,255 49 upon the property in their hands.

The arnual donation visits were made vesterday, when a l-beral amount of money, clothing, &c., was contributed.

Addresses were made by Rey, Messra, Torry, Rockwall.

Addresses were made by Rev. Messra. Torry, Rockwell, and others, and the meeting separated.

Incendiarism.—The Glendale House, near the Hackensack river, on the Newark plank road, was destroyed by fire on Sunday night. It was not occupied, and its destruction is undoubtedly the work of an incendiary.

LICENSES.—The Common Council will meet this evening at the Lyceum. It is expected that the question of granting liquor licenses will come up for action.

JEESLY CITY BIBLE SCEINTY.—This society will hold an anniversary at the York street M. E. Church on Wednesday evening, on which occasion Rev. J. B. Wakeley and Rev. B. McNeil will make addresses.

The following target companies have passed our office within the last few days:—

The Mead Guard, on their return from the River House, Harlem. After the shooting the Guard sat down to a dinner at this place, and enjoyed themselves highly.

The Flock Guard, Capt. Wm. H. Wisson, a well disciplined and finely equipped military company, on their innual target excursion to Hoboken. Sergeant R. E. happ, Feter Jones, Jr., and Mr. James Kilbe, were aming the successful competitors for the prizes.

The Hyer Guard, on their return from their first annual excursion to Hoboken flats. This Guard numbered Jarvis Guard, Capt. J. McMullin. This Guard were preceded by Robertson's Brass Band, which played us a fine air as the company paraded past this office. Some rich prizes were worn on the breasts of the members.

Bunker Hill Volunteers, Captain Wm M Fish. There were seventeen valuable prizes distributed among the members of this company, which paraded like a well drilled corps.

Cross Guard, Captain J. McCullough, attended by Wallace's Brass Band.

Independent Musketeers, Captain W. F. Long, attended by Shelton's Brass Band, and the Flock Guard, Captain Wm. Harrison, also attended by Shelton's Band.

All three of these companies will compare well with the oldest Guard among our citizen soldiery.

Before Hon. Judge Beebe. Nov. 20 .- Nuisance .- Thomas Jackson, rag merchant was indicted for this offence. It appeared that in June last defendant's store in Water street (filled with rags) was partly burnt; the rags were saturated with water, and in order to save them defendant removed them to Bessy's lumber yard, between avenues A and B, and Bessy's lumber yard, between avenues A and B, and Sixth and Seventh streets. While in the process of drying there, the witnesses for the prosecution (among whom was the City Inspector) declared that they emitted a smell which infected the locality, and was injurious to the public health. Witnesses for the defence, employes of the defendant, on the other hand declared that they suffered no inconvenience from the smell. Defendant paid no attention to the remonstrance of the neighbors, and old not remove the rags until obliged to do so by the police. Verdict of guilty.

Passing Bad Bills.—Francis Barbier, a Frenchman, was indicted for purchasing ten segars with a note of the Metropolitan Lank of Washington—a broken bank. The indictment set forth that the segars were the property of Famuel L. Nasits, 438½ Broadway, whereas, according to the proof. Nasits was only a clerk in the store. The jury therefore found a special verdict of not gallty, in consequence of this variance between the indictmentand the proof.

Grand Larcray.—John Ramm was indicted for stealing, on the 27th of October, a check on the Bank of Commerce for $1,253 53 from John Kamel, a German emigiant. From the evidence of the prosecution, it appeared that Kanel, in company with one Benedict Hanny, arrived here in October. Both had drafts on the house of le klum and Moore; that of the former being for the sum mentioned in the indictment. On going to get their drafts cashed they first met the prisoner, who took them to the fibre of Le kham & Moore, where they received checks on the Pank of Commerce for their drafts. The prisoner then took their checks from them, and brought them through several streets to the Custum House, passing the Bank of Commerce on the way. After they arrived at the Custom House, the prisoner sloped with the checks, and was never seen afterwards, until arrested in the lank of Commerce. The case was continued over until to-day.

The Court then adjourned.
